TWO ROUNDS

— ROUND 1 — PRELIMINARY EVALUATION & FILTERING

FREE

ENTRY FEE · ROUND 1
No registration or participation fee is required.

01 Teams submit their proposed solution via a PPT or other format specified by the organizers.

02 The presentation should cover the problem statement, proposed solution, system architecture, hardware requirements, feasibility, and expected impact.

03 Judges evaluate on innovation, technical feasibility, problem relevance, and implementation potential.

04 Only shortlisted teams advance to Round 2.

05 The shortlist and submission deadlines are communicated through official channels.

— ROUND 2 — FINAL EVALUATION & PROTOTYPE DEMONSTRATION

₹1,770

PER TEAM · ₹1,500 + 18% GST
Covers meals, snacks, tea breaks & event stationery (ID cards, essentials).
Accommodation not included.

01 Only shortlisted teams are eligible to participate in Round 2.

02 Selected teams must register and pay the prescribed fee to confirm participation.

03 Teams develop their solutions during the 24-hour on-site hackathon.

04 A functional hardware prototype, supported by software where required, must be demonstrated at final evaluation.

05 Teams present their implementation, demonstrate functionality, explain the technical design, and answer the judging panel.

06 Final evaluation considers technical implementation, functionality, innovation, real-world impact, feasibility, reliability, and presentation.

07 The judges' decisions will be final.

04 HARDWARE & DEVELOPMENT RULES

BUILD SPEC

01 Individual components, sensors, microcontrollers, development boards, and standalone modules are permitted.

02 Teams may bring their own components and specialized equipment, subject to organizer approval and safety requirements.

03 Pre-built projects, previously completed prototypes, and ready-made integrated solutions may not be submitted as entries.

04 The core solution must be developed during the event.

05 Open-source libraries, frameworks, and reference materials may be used, provided their use is disclosed when requested.

06 Teams must acknowledge third-party designs, code, datasets, and other external resources used.

07 Any use of pre-existing work must be clearly disclosed to the organizers and judges.

08 Participants needing specialized equipment (induction motors, autotransformers, three-phase supplies, PCB fabrication) must submit requirements in advance.

09 All equipment usage is subject to availability, approval, and applicable safety requirements.

05 CODE OF CONDUCT & SAFETY

FILE OC-27/RR · 05

MANDATORY

01 Follow all instructions from organizers, faculty coordinators, mentors, and venue staff.

02 Use equipment responsibly and maintain a safe working environment.

03 High-voltage equipment, hazardous materials, and dangerous experiments require prior approval and supervision.

04 Do not damage, misuse, or remove institute equipment without authorization.

05 Harassment, cheating, plagiarism, sabotage, and disruptive behavior will not be tolerated.

06 Organizers may disqualify teams that violate safety requirements or engage in misconduct.

07 Comply with venue security rules and overnight access restrictions, and report accidents or unsafe conditions immediately.

06 JUDGING & RESULTS

FILE OC-27/RR · 06

FINAL

01 All eligible final-round teams are evaluated using the published judging criteria and weightages.

02 Judges may ask about design decisions, implementation, testing, originality, and practical feasibility.

03 Teams must ensure their prototype is ready for demonstration at the assigned evaluation time.

04 Judges may request evidence of functionality or clarification on the development process.

05 Any attempt to misrepresent progress, originality, or functionality may result in disqualification.

06 The judges' decisions will be binding.

07 ACCOMMODATION & GENERAL CONDITIONS

GENERAL
